

Should I stay or should I go?

A father & son perspective

Dagur Steinn Elfu Ómarsson (age 18) is very active young man that lives live to the fullest. He was born with cerebral palsy and uses a wheelchair. His first stay in a municipality run short break home was at the age of 3. Dagur will tell us about his journey and feelings to the service and bring his dad along to discuss various aspects.